Community Service Programmes

Rehabilitation for the 2018 Flood affected.

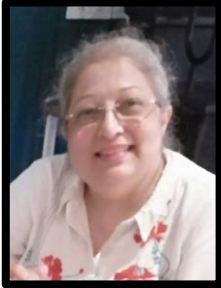

In continuation of the project “Nectar Flow” initiated with WZO Trust in 2018, 100 additional new bee boxes were distributed to a different set of farmers in Coorg, who had also been badly affected by the floods of 2018. A total of around 300 kgs of honey, bee wax and bee colony sale, brought in considerable revenue to the farmers. Apart from revenue, there was significant improvement in the bee population, thus improving the environment and also increasing coffee pollination by 40% .

In Kerala, an automatic book cutting machine was provided to Alware Press. (Friendship House) to enhance the production capacity of book binding, providing jobs and income to 25 women who were affected by the Kerala Floods in Aluva.
