KINDER TRUST VOCATIONAL TRAINING CENTRE AT COONOOR & K.G.F

People with disability & women from low income groups are given training in tailoring, knitting, paper pen making, food preservation, baking and bio products under project Learn and Earn. We have even found placement for all of the trainees. However, due to Covid 19 we had to keep the centre closed for many months. A self help group was formed by training women under financial assistance of Kinder Trust in K.G.F.

MEDICAL AID / SURGICAL ASSISTANCE

Surgeries for correcting deformities on children, emergency surgery for the elderly and the under privileged were arranged. Post operative physiotherapy was conducted at home. Monthly medical aid for medication. Prosthesis supplied to accident victim. Our special thanks to Ortho One Hospital Coimbatore, KMF Hospital Kotagiri and Jain Hospital Bangalore.

COMMUNITY SERVICE DURING - COVID 19 FIRST WAVE

When the pandemic began in March of 2020, with lock down there was an urgent need to create awareness and help People with disability and elderly with rations, so that they could survive the lock down. Kinder Trust distributed 50 grocery / survival kits to people in Hubbatahrai and 50 in K.G.F, Karnataka and 50 in Bangalore with a months ration for a family. Blankets were supplied to the temporary Isolation centre at St. Joseph's College, set up by the Coonoor municipality. Two Trustees of Kinder Trust were recognized as COVID WARRIORS by the Collector of Nilgiris Ms Innocent Divya.

ENVIRONMENT CARE - IMPROVEMENT

This year Kinder Trust managed to fulfil the wishes of the people of Coonoor, by arranging 4 E-Toilets, that are fully automatic, self cleaning, bio friendly and self Steam sanitizing. This will help the general public in the Municipal market, court and the Mettupalayam Bus stand that sees large crowds. Tourists visiting can also benefit from this facility. Kinder Trust is really grateful to HPCL Retail Coimbatore, ERAM Kerala and Municipality for making the turnkey project possible during the Covid pandemic. An ongoing bee keeping project in Coorg continues to assist those that suffered 2018 floods.

COMMUNITY SERVICE : ASSISTING PEOPLE WITH DISABILITY

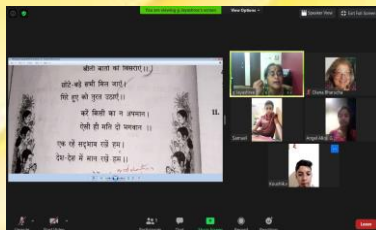

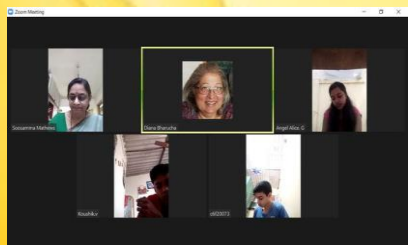

The People with Disability are provided homes by the Government at 3 colonies in the Nilgiris, blankets and clothes distributions was undertaken by Kinder Trust, along with talks of general awareness, cleanliness and hygiene. Training for several Bio Products is proposed after Pandemic lock down has opened.

In keeping with the humanitarian principle that every human deserves a dignified send off, Kinder Trust assists with the last ceremonial rights of unidentified bodies in conjunction with the Local authorities.

COMMUNITY SERVICE : TRANSPORTATION OF CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL NEEDS TO THE GOVT. DAY CARE CENTRE AND ONLINE TEACHING CLASSES TO CHILDREN OF CLASS 9 IN ALL SUBJECTS

Children are transported to and from remote hamlets in Coonoor to the Govt. Day Care Center for learning, rehabilitation and physiotherapy. This on going facility has increased the attendance in the centre. However, since the schools had been shut for most of the time due to the covid pandemic, this vehicle was used for other covid related activities.
